

JET (Job Exploration Training)

Purpose: To enable students with disabilities attending high school to be better prepared to enter the workforce, explore different jobs in real world settings and have paid work in their communities.

Eligibility: High school students who are receiving special education services, have an IEP, or have a disability for the purposes of section 504. These students apply to participate in JET and are selected based on their application and participation in Pre-ETS.